No: 11/2016

Date: 11th January 2016

Sand Dune House Receives Certificate of Fitness

Her Majesty's Government of Gibraltar is proud to announce that Sand Dune House at the new Beach View Terraces estate has received its Certificate of Fitness and is now ready for completion.

Purchasers will by now have started to receive their notices of completion, and the process of completions begins today. As soon as they are able to complete, purchasers will receive their keys and the first residents are expected to move in to their new homes by the end of this month.

Minister for Housing, the Hon Samantha Sacramento MP, said: "I am extremely pleased that the residents of Sand Dune House will be able to celebrate the New Year by beginning to move in to their new homes. I am confident that they will share my satisfaction with the high quality of the finished Beach View Terraces estate."
