Numerous stalls selling arts and crafts items, jewellery, beach-ware, painted stones, and photographs, proved very popular with the public. There were also various food stalls.

The next beach market will be held on July 20th at Eastern Beach with a third scheduled for August 17th at Catalan Bay.

Members of the public are reminded that anyone wishing to join in the beach market can contact Daniel Guerrero at the Ministry of Culture or Alison Baldachino at the Gibraltar Tourist Board on ur&beaches@gibraltar.gov.gi

Minister for Tourism Samantha Sacramento MP said: “We are pleased that the public have supported our novel initiative of having an evening market at the beach, so that people can have fun outdoors and enjoy the great weather doing something different.

“The evening was a huge success and we would like to remind the public that we have two more beach markets coming up later in the summer to look forward to.”
