Government welcome Gibraltar pledge in UK Liberal Democrat manifesto

The Government welcome the pledge in the manifesto of the UK Liberal Democrats published today to campaign to protect the rights of the people of Gibraltar.

The manifesto says:

“We will fight to ensure that the priorities and long-term interests of the nations of the UK are fully taken into account during negotiations. We will oppose any moves that threaten the political stability of Northern Ireland. We will also campaign to protect the rights of the people of Gibraltar.”

It is good news that political parties in the United Kingdom are taking note of the position of Gibraltar in the run-up to the general election of Thursday 8 June. The Government is very pleased with its lobbying work across all political parties in the United Kingdom which is designed to make sure that our concerns are understood by all.
