Retirement at the Gibraltar Port Authority

Congratulations and best wishes go to Peter Wyatt on his retirement after over 26 years of service for the Port Authority, formerly the Port Department.

Peter joined the Port Department in 1991 after working in several government departments beforehand. His experience and knowledge as Financial Manager has been invaluable to both the Port and his colleagues. J Manuel Tirado, Acting CEO and Captain of the Port, on behalf of everyone at the Gibraltar Port Authority, took the opportunity to thank Peter for his service and wished him a long and happy retirement.
