Housing officials attend Housing Debate Conference in London

The Principal Housing Officer Geraldine Reading and Daniel Payas, Ministry for Housing official have attended “The Big Housing Debate,” a housing conference in London.

The conference, jointly organised by Inside Housing and the Chartered Institute of Housing, was chaired by Ms Terrie Alafat Chief Executive of CIH and served as a unique opportunity for housing professionals to explore, debate and discuss improvements to the service delivered to the public.

The forum further presented the opportunity to continue networking with UK Housing Associations and examining best practices.
