RETIREMENT AT THE GIBRALTAR PORT AUTHORITY

Congratulations and best wishes go to Richard Requena on his retirement after over 28 years of service for the Port Authority, formerly the Port Department.

Richard joined the Port Department in 1989 as a Seaman and gradually worked his way through the ranks finally being promoted to the role of Senior Port Officer in 2012. His experience and knowledge of the port and its operations has been invaluable to both the Port Authority and his colleagues. On behalf of everyone at the Gibraltar Port Authority, Manuel Tirado, Acting CEO and Captain of the Port took the opportunity to thank Richard for his service and wished him a long and happy retirement.
