UK / Gibraltar Ministerial Bi-lateral Meeting in New York

Minister for Equality Samantha Sacramento met with Baroness Williams of Trafford while at the United Nations Headquarters in New York. Baroness Williams, UK Minister for Equalities, was leading the UK's delegation to the Commission on the Status of Women of which Minister Sacramento was a part in an observer capacity. The meeting centred on gender equality issues and future projects.

Minister Sacramento also attended a session on Youth, Gender and Identity at which Baroness Williams was a panel speaker.

Minister Sacramento said: "I am very pleased that Baroness Williams extended an invitation to meet with me personally while at CSW. The UK Government's Equalities Office has undertaken very progressive work in the field of gender equality and it was useful to establish a connection.
