Date: 2nd August 2018

Tobacco Seizure on Eastern Beach Road

In the early hours of this morning (2 Aug), an HM Customs patrol intercepted four men removing master cases of cigarettes from a locally registered vehicle at the north end of Eastern Beach Road. HM Customs secured the vehicle and found that it contained 13 master cases (650 cartons). A chase on foot continued into the construction site where a further 98 cartons were seized by officers. The men made good their escape but HM Customs continue to investigate the matter.

The seized cigarettes have a retail value of around £15,000.
