Date: 12th September 2018

Student Nurses ‘Walk the Beat’

A group of 12 student nurses from the Gibraltar Health Authority are taking a break from their text books and are organising a 24 hour walking event around the track at the Victoria Stadium on the 29th -30th September 2018 to coincide with World Heart Day on the 29th September. The event will start at 1030hrs.

Teams, individuals, families and friends are invited to register for this new event 'Walk the Beat' to help raise money for the Gibraltar Cardiac Association, a newly formed charity working towards the key to a healthy heart.

Registration forms can be collected from the Gibraltar Crystal or Waterbabies nursery. A registration desk will also be available at the Piazza on Saturday 15th September.
