Archives Call for Border Closure Memorabilia

In June of this year, the Government will host an exhibition to mark the 50th anniversary of the closure of the frontier in 1969.

The Archivist, Anthony Pitaluga, has already collected a considerable amount of material which includes photographs, press cuttings and film footage.

However, the Government would ask members of the public who may have potential exhibits or memorabilia to contact the National Archives in order to establish whether this can be used in the exhibition.
